GPS CITY TOUR

"A tale of smugglers, rascals and fish in a salt crust"

»» Do you know what smugglers used to bring across the old bridge? Do you know the place where a jazz legend was arrested? And why is Burghausen a particularly good spot for rascals?

Find out about Burghausen's historic old town on an interactive multimedia tour. Hear stories as told today in the family, by friends and by dignitaries. Enjoy a hugely entertaining, fully interactive Burghausen experience spiced and spiked with wit, irony and lots of activity suggestions.

The interactive walk takes in 12 historical highlights that shaped the town. It all starts in the town square at the start column. On your tour of Burghausen's old town, step back in time into the history and stories at the foot of the world's longest castle.

He couldn't stand Fritz either because he's my best friend and always laughs when he says „children“. He had ... ed him up twice for this, so ... we ... something to this child. Once he came into the classroom with the headmaster and ... the teacher's desk. The ... nice! I have great news for you ... for ... time, and I have ... Aloysius for ... role model ... look at ... will look ... this.
